Maintenance prices are on an annual basis and are provided by Design Simulation Technologies or a certified reseller.
Node-locked licenses use a USB security key (dongle). Any computer that has the dongle inserted can run the software.
Maintenance and support is included with the Annual License
First Year Maintenance and upgrades are not included with a paid-up license purchase and must be purchased separately

1	For Network Licenses - All software and documentation is delivered electronically. An Email containing download instructions and a serial number will be the sole deliverable.
2	For Network Licenses - A CD may be requested at no charge. Shipping charges will be added to the order or a UPS, DHL, or Fedex account must be provided.
3	For Node Locked Licenses - A physical shipment will be made consisting of a CD and USB Dongle.
4	For orders to the US and Canada: American Express, Visa, MasterCard, Discover, checks, and purchase orders are accepted.
5	For International orders: American Express, Visa, MasterCard and bank wire transfers accepted.
6	Sales tax is extra.
7	All sales are final. No cost Evaluation versions of all products are available and provide the means for you to determine if the products meet your requirements.
8	Technical support is provided by Design Simulation Technologies or a certified reseller for the first year of ownership and is extended yearly upon maintenance renewal.
9	A copy of the customer's purchase order and/or purchasing information must accompany all orders.
10	Network configurations require the installation of our network license server.
11	Network licenses can only be installed at a single geographic location or campus.
12	Prices and terms are subject to change without notice.
